

WAIVER OF ATTORNEY-CLIENT CONFIDENTIALITY

I, _____, am a client of _____ at the University of Illinois Student Legal Service. I understand that I have an attorney-client relationship wherein all communications are protected from disclosure by my attorney to third parties. Third parties include my parents or guardians.

There are circumstances in which a client may wish to have a parent, spouse, guardian, or others speak with an attorney about the case. A client is NOT required to consent to disclosure to third parties. A client should only waive attorney-client confidentiality of his/her own free will. A client should understand that the third party can potentially disclose client confidential information to the larger community and is also subject to subpoena to testify against the client in court concerning disclosed information.

I have read and understand the foregoing information and hereby waive attorney-client confidentiality and will permit my attorney to speak with _____
_____.
